THE CORNELL LAW SCHOOL

Professor Henry W. Edgerton, having been appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate as Associate Justice of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia, resigned his position on the Law Faculty, effective as of January 31st. His first association with the Law School was as Assistant Professor from 1916 to 1919. He returned as Professor in 1929. On sabbatic leave in 1934-35, he served as Assistant to the Attorney General in Washington.

In December, the Board of Trustees, authorized an addition to the Law Faculty and filled the new position by appointing Mr. Arthur J. Keeffe as Assistant Professor. Mr. Keeffe received his A.B. and LL.B. degrees from Cornell in 1924 and 1926. Since 1926 he has practiced in New York City, being continuously associated with the firm of Messrs. Milbank, Tweed,
